AN INTRODUCTION TO CASTLE HILL

An impressive and welcoming wedding venue with all the support you would need, we can connect you with the best suppliers in North Devon to bring you your perfect tailored wedding package.

Holwell Temple

Satyr's Temple

We have four licensed ceremony venues for you to choose from and both the West Wing and Holwell Temple cater for Wedding Receptions as well.

CASTLE HILL

WEST WING & RED ROOM

Approaching historic Castle Hill your eye will be drawn to the large Palladian Mansion.

We would be delighted to offer you exclusive use of this stunning venue and gardens for your special day.

SAYING I DO

There are two rooms which are available for your ceremony at Castle Hill.

The Red Room which sits within the main house is licensed for 80.

Alternatively, hold your ceremony within the West Wing which is licensed for 200. The West Wing and West Lawn are available for the Reception should you wish to hold both at Castle Hill.

With a Marquee on the West Lawn, the venue capacity extends to 300 guests for the reception.

WEDDING RECEPTION

We provide furniture to seat your top table and up to 120 guests on round tables. We also work closely with a furniture hire company so we can source alternatives perfect for any styling.

At Castle Hill you have the flexibility to choose your own suppliers ensuring your wedding day is created exactly how you dreamed it would be to suit your style and budget.

We work closely with a number of approved suppliers and can happily help you find the ones right for you.

MARQUEES & TIPIS ON THE WEST LAWN

The West Lawn is the perfect location for a marquee or tipi, with stunning views across the valley and a fountain which makes a truly unique centrepiece.

We can help you source a marquee and we will gladly liaise with them for site visits and logistics to ensure your day runs smoothly.

The West Lawn makes the ideal location for a welcome drink, garden games or just as a breath taking backdrop for your wedding guests to enjoy.

Whilst your guests enjoy Castle Hill's stunning location, you can discover outstanding parkland and explore winding pathways, majestic terraces and beautiful woodland.

HOLWELL TEMPLE

Holwell Temple was built in 1771 and is the most beautiful and elaborate of Matthew Lord Fortescue's eighteenth century extensions into the landscape and arguably one of the most dramatically sited in the country.

An elaborate and beautiful temple, Holwell Temple is decidedly Roman in design.

HOLWELL TEMPLE

It was originally built as a house and was lived in until distressingly gutted by fire almost a century ago.

It has now been restored and once again proudly overlooks the river valley towards Castle Hill, and you can have exclusive use of this stunning property for your wedding.

THE CEREMONY

You have exclusive use of Holwell Temple and the surrounding woodlands with private drive and parking.

The temple is licensed for 60 and with a marquee capacity increases to 100 for a reception.

A perfect spot for photos after the ceremony and enjoy a quiet moment in this magnificent landscape.

SATYR'S TEMPLE

For those who want to get away from it all.

Satyr's Temple, nestles in the grounds of Castle Hill, a secluded location in our woodland on the estate.

The perfect setting for a ceremony for 2 or a small number of close friends and family.

SAYING I DO

Approach your ceremony with a walk along the stream, over Ugley Bridge to Satyr's Temple. Surrounded by stunning Ancient Woodland it's an incredibly romantic venue.

The Temple holds 5 but if you wanted to share your day with others we can arrange for seating in front of the temple, perfect for those seeking an intimate unique wedding venue.

LET US SHOW YOU IN PERSON

The best way to see just how perfect your wedding would be at Castle Hill is to come and see for yourself.

Call us for an appointment when you can ask as many questions as you wish.
